Day and Date: Tuesday, 23 September 2014
Venue: Hall A1-156
Time: 10 am- 12 pm
Students: 37 / 75
Faculty/Expert: Mrs. Garima Mathur

Activities:

1. Knowing My Pal
   Activity: Snowball fight
   Details: Students threw crushed balls on which their names were written in air. Each student caught a ball randomly and approached the person whose name was written on the ball, to get to know about him/her. They then introduced the person they met to the audience.

Output:
- To start a conversation with a stranger
- Getting to know a stranger
- What to tell about ourselves
- What to ask a person to know about him/her in the first meet
- How to converse in English
- Etiquettes while conversation
2. Knowing my Group

Activity: Group formation and Creative Group Introduction

Details: Students formed a group of 5-6, and discussed amongst themselves the strengths and weakness of the group as a whole. They introduced their group creatively to the audience.

Output:

- Team work
- Group conversation
- Compilation of strengths and weakness of group
- Creative presentation
- Positive and negative feedback.

GENERAL COMMENTS / FEEDBACK

1. Students participated enthusiastically
2. They realized the need of English communication
3. They came up with excellent creative demonstrations when worked in teams in both activities.
4. English Grammar is weak, which shakes their confidence.
5. Some Rules of Super Club were propagated in the session:
   a. All conversation in English
   b. All have to speak
   c. All have to participate

6. Concluding remarks by Dr. Manoj Gupta, Provost, Poornima University
   a. Improve General awareness
   b. Work hard & Put extra efforts
   c. Practice Aptitude
   d. Work towards your target and practice beyond University hours and work.

Mantra of the Day: “Never say NO to an Opportunity”

Garima Mathur
Coordinator-Acad Planning
Poornima University

******